

ENGAGE.ALIGN.INFLUENCE:

Leveraging Interprofessional Teams

Friday, April 26th, 2019

Ron Joyce Center
4350 South Service Road,
Burlington, ON L7L 5R8

To register please go to:
www.ontwig.ca

Agenda

- 08:00-08:30 Registration and coffee
- 08:30-08:45 Welcome & Annual Report: Valerie Winberg: President
- 08:45-09:45 Provincial Implementation of Wound Care Initiatives
Guest Speaker: Amy Olmstead -Director, Home and Community Care -
Ministry of Health and Long Term Care
- 09:45-10:45 LHINs as Exemplars of Change
- 1) Waterloo Wellington LHIN: Lee-Ann Murray - Director of Patient Services,
Sabrina Martin – Clinical Care Manager and Jane Hyde - Advanced Practice Nurse-
Wound Care
 - 2) North East LHIN: Martha Musicco - Director Home and Community Care &
Melissa Pretty - Clinical Services Manager
 - 3) South West LHIN : Nicole Wood – Wound Care Educator and Resource Officer
- 10:45-11:00 Bio Break
- 11:00-12:00 THINK Research: Leveraging technology to advance evidence-based
wound care
- Guest Speakers: Elaine Calvert, Director of Research and Development, Long Term Care and Joanna Carroll, Chief Operations Officer, THINK research
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch and Networking

- 1:00-1:45 Team Stories: Today and Envisioning Tomorrow
Guest Speaker: Tracey DasGupta - Director of Interprofessional Practice Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre, Toronto ON
- 1:45-3:15 Panel Discussion: Leveraging Interprofessional Teams
Harnessing collective knowledge, expertise and experience to provide optimal patient outcomes
Carrie Johnston, Dietitian, Hamilton Health Sciences; Dr. Robert Sargeant, Chief of Internal Medicine, St. Michael's Hospital; Chris Murphy, President, NSWOCC; Rick Werkman, Board member of the Ontario Society of Chiropractors and Tiziana Bontempo, Manager, Professional Practice, Ontario Society of Occupational Therapists
- 3:15-3:45 Looking Ahead: 2020 Vision for OntWIG
- 3:45-4:00 Summary and closing remarks